

Energy Star Sales Tax Holiday

For the first time, West Virginians can now improve their homes, lower their long-term energy costs, and help the environment while saving money on purchases of ENERGY STAR® qualified products.

Effective September 1-7, 2008 , West Virginians will not have to pay the State's 6% sales and use tax on certain ENERGY STAR qualified products.

Purchases qualify for the sales and use tax holiday if the purchase is for a product that:

- has been designated as an ENERGY STAR product,
- costs $2,500 or less,
- is for noncommercial, home ,or personal use.

ENERGY STAR products are distinguished by the ENERGY STAR logo:
